From the Baron & Baroness

Good greetings to the populace of fair Unser Hafen,

It was indeed a privilege to travel to the Estrella War and take part in this mighty inter-Kingdom event. We are well pleased with our warriors, fencers, archers, artisans and those who supported the event and the participants. Please join us on Friday evening, Feb. 27, at the war revel (dance practice site) where we can tell our war tales to all who will listen! We wish we could have filmed the march to the battlefield when the Outlands and our allies gathered in one mighty river. Huge drums urged the fighters on and kept the air alive with sound. Come to the revel and hear and tell more!

Our fighters selected Lord Tuman as the most valorous in their midst, and was given recognition as the recipient of the Corona Graminea (grass crown). He was honored for his constant energy, enthusiasm, and spirit during the continuous battles on both Saturday and Sunday. The Corona Graminea was made from the grasses of the Estrella field by Lady Phaedra, Michelle, and Morgana, and Lord Tuman was added to the list of brave warriors who have received this honor from their fellows at war.

Congratulations to Lord Cugan who had received an award of arms at Caerthen 12th Night, which caught up with him at Bofharrach's Black & White Ball. And, we welcome Mistress Meriel who has travelled from the Kingdom of Calontir to join us here in the Outlands in our Barony.

At the Estrella War, Baroness Leonora Kathryn de Provence was admitted to the Esteemed Order of the Pelican in a beautiful candlelit ceremony. She is now Her Excellency, Mistress Leonora. Congratulations also to Lord Caonnon who received an Award of Arms at Estrella and who also won the chivalry prize in a Kingdom Prize Tournament.

We shall be attending Outlands Crown Tournament, Unser Hafen Dance Collegium & Ball, and the Kingdom Heralds & Scribes Collegium in March. We encourage everyone to participate in local activities and also to travel to other group's events whenever possible.

We request that any member of our populace use extreme courtesy when speaking of others, present or absent. Should a negative rumor be passed to you, please challenge the teller for proof of accuracy and do not pass it further. If you have concerns or questions about anyone or anything within our Kingdom, please feel free to bring them to us. We don't have all the answers, but we can help find them.

Outlands Brewers and Spiritmakers Guild

The Outlands Brewers and Spiritmakers Guild now has a home page on the World Wide Web. The URL is:

http://www.pcisys.net/~ronkrob/brewer.htm

The home page is new and needs your help. Stop in and share a recipe, a favorite internet link, or give your thoughts and ideas on what should be included in the Guild bylaws. Don't forget to add your name to the members list. The success of the home page depends on the input of the brewers throughout the Kingdom and I hope to see all those interested in the brewing arts visiting often.

Caerthe (Denver, CO)

In March we will be presented with "A Brief Introduction to The Mabinogion" by Lady Guernen Cimarguid. The collection of stories known as the Mabinogion (Y Mabinogi in Welsh) is the most famous body of medieval Welsh prose literature, and the core of the Mabinogion is the part known as Y Pedair Cainc, the Four Branches. Originally assembled from tales told by the kyfarwyddiaid, the professional storytellers of the Middle Ages, these stories have entertained generations (and also been a great boon to modern fantasy writers). Lady Guernen will provide a brief history and overview of these four tales (Pwyll Prince of Dyfed, Branwen Daughter of Llyr, Manawydan Son of Llyr, and Math Son of Mathonwy), together with some information on Welsh pronunciation and geography. If you have thought of reading these tales but been put off by "unpronouncable" Welsh names and unidentifiable places, here is your chance of an easy introduction, a guided tour of the Four Branches. If you are already expert in this literature, please come and contribute your knowledge and insight to the discussion!

We will meet at 7:30 P.M., March 25, the fourth Wednesday of the month, at THL Wyndylyn's House; 15912 E. Lehigh Circle, Aurora . If you have not been there before, take your best route to Hampden and Chambers. Go east on Hampden to the 2nd right, go south on Kalispell to the "T" intersection of Lehigh Circle. Follow it west and around south until you see the banners. Come on in; the door will be open at 7:00. All are encouraged to attend. For further information, call THL Wyndylyn, (303) 680-1583, Lady Guernen, (303)715-3497, or Master Robin Vinehall, (303) 444-5004. Period garb is optional, but appreciated. If you are coming from Dragonspine, take Route 83 north until it becomes South Parker Road, then turn east when it crosses Hampden.

March Arts and Sciences in Bofharrach
After returning from Estrella War our gathering of cow herders has rested and taken some of the ideas gleaned from our travels and shared with the local populace. While at war we saw several grand displays of arts and sciences including needlework, fibre arts, woodworking, metalsmithing, casting, shoe-making, brewing and vintning, cooking, glazing and leading, leather crafting, and many, many more. Ask those that attended to share their "No Blarney, there I was...", stories.

We spent the last Tuesday evening in February with Mistress Lughbec and Lady Anne Mathieu making Medieval head wear. Hoods, wimples, coifs, barbettes and veils were the specialties of the evening.

In March Bofharrach will meet again at the home of Mistress Lughbec for an evening of making favors and small pouches. Bring any materials you would like to make favors with or you can make Bofharrach favors with the materials provided. The class will begin at 7:00 p.m. Call (970)353-6782 for extra details.

From I-25 take the Greeley Exit to the East. Continue on Highway 34 (DO NOT exit onto business route) past 17th Street stoplight, get into a left turn lane. Turn left onto 11th Avenue. Continue north up 11th Avenue and make a Right onto 20th Street (just past the college). Make your way west to the Sixth Avenue stop sign and then turn left. We are in the second house on the left hand side (west) of the street. Our address is 1941 Sixth Avenue, Greeley, CO.
